More of Everything Coming to Dallas: Elizabeth Lucas Returns with More Artwork Choices

Art on Wood & Lucite, Furniture and ELC Market Pillows Coming to Dallas Market Center

At the 2013 Dallas Market Center, the Elizabeth Lucas Company introduced show-goers to artwork printed directly on galvanized steel. As well as furniture items like decorated ottomans.

For the 2014 Dallas show, they're bringing more. More furniture pieces. More artwork, on more mediums. And brand-new pillows in the ELC Market retail line.

One of the newest mediums available is Lucite. By printing art on two sheets of Lucite and stacking them, Elizabeth Lucas has created 3-dimensional wall art. Look at "Plant Life," right, for an example. See how the flower's edges appear to stretch out toward you? That's a 3-D effect. Imagine how lifelike it appears when you're face-to-face with the art piece.

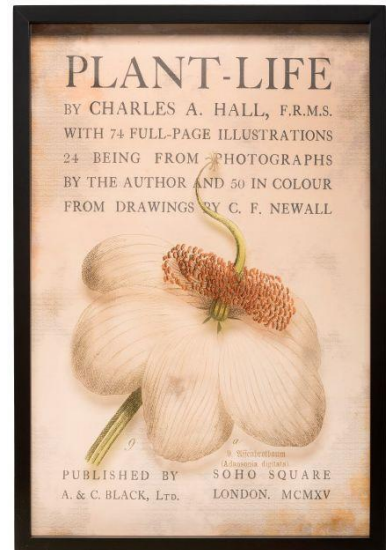

Furniture and ELC Market Pillows

Below you see a photo of a Steadman occasional chair with "Blue Bird", an Elizabeth Lucas original, on the back. The Dallas booth features several furniture pieces just like this, from chairs to benches to bed headboards.

For pillows on the bed or couch, Elizabeth Lucas has expanded the ELC Market line of retail products. Consisting of single-layer canvas prints and cotton pillows with their own unique "New Vintage" imagery, ELC Market items are already popular with retail suppliers.

Showroom.

"Every time we come to Dallas, we want to do so with more new pieces," said Scott Lucas, co-owner. "Everyone likes the ELC Market pillows; they're a sophisticated design touch at a great price point. The Lucite pieces are really popular as well, they provide warmth to modern décor."

More to See, Plus Custom Artwork Available Year-Round

The ELC booth is located at Luxury Home #708 Trade Mart in the Dallas World Trade Center, June 18—22. Visitors can request custom orders on-site. Elizabeth Lucas art is also on permanent display at Dallas' Lloyd Humphrey's & Associates
